

Bolder Group incorporates Athos Group into its international network

Bolder Group and Athos Group announce the successful completion of the addition of Athos to the Bolder Group, pending regulatory approval. Following this, Bolder Group is poised to deliver even more enhanced private wealth solutions in Switzerland, Malta, the Netherlands, Cyprus and Anguilla.

Athos's integration diversifies Bolder's suite of private wealth services, enriching its capacity to provide bespoke solutions to clients with unique requirements. Athos has delivered high quality services to global entrepreneurs, wealthy families, UNHWIs and family-owned businesses.

Cees Jan Quirijns, the CEO of Athos Group, believes the integration is a "natural fit", as the two companies share not only the same expertise, but also the same vision and values. He remarks, "This merger is a substantial boost for our teams and clients, and we are sure that this will result in a higher level of service delivery through our combined expertise and experience."

For his part, Bolder Group's CEO Sükrü Evrengün says the combination of the two organisations presents opportunities for both their internal and external stakeholders. "This is a strategic move to expand our client offerings and fortify our global footprint by entering new markets. Through this partnership, we can offer even more robust, innovative and diversified solutions to our growing client base," he says.

The addition of Athos to the Bolder Group is a step towards the strategic expansion of Bolder Group, which is currently present in 15 countries across EMEA, the Americas and Asia.
